

“LIFE LINES - Linear Infrastructure Networks with Ecological Solutions” Seminar

Parque de Ciência e Tecnologia do Alentejo, Évora
2nd June 2016

Program

- 9.00 - Reception
- 9.30 - Opening ceremony
- 10.00 - The LIFE LINES project. (António Mira – Universidade de Évora)
- 10.30 - Measures to reduce fauna road kills: ledges in culverts, road-signs for amphibians and nets on road slopes to avoid rabbits colonization. (Graça Garcia - IP)
- 10.45 - Cartography of invasive plants and robotic monitoring solutions for animals' road kills. (Neftalí Sillero – Universidade do Porto)
- 11.00 - Video as a dissemination tool in conservation. (Joaquim Pedro – Universidade de Aveiro)
- 11.15 - Towards sustainability in nature conservation-Autochthonous plant species and communities. (Marta Mattioli – MARCA ADL)
- 11.30 - Coffee break
- 12.00 - Discussion of LIFE LINES project.
- 13.00 - Lunch
- 14.30 - A pragmatic approach to evaluate permeability of transport infrastructure for wildlife (Andreas Seiler – IENE)
- 15.00 - Road mitigation: How effective are our measures? (Edgar van der Grift – Alterra)
- 15.30 - Wildlife and High Speed Railways interactions (Carme Rosell – Minuartia)
- 16.00 - Las medidas de desfragmentación para la fauna adoptadas en la Autovía A-381, Jerez-los Barrios (Cádiz) y las actuaciones en carreteras de Doñana dentro de un LIFE de conservación del lince ibérico. (Luis Ramajo Rodriguez – Agencia de Obra Pública. Junta de Andalucía)
- 16.30 - Coffee break
- 16.45 - Dead can move? Sampling effects on the identification of roadkill hotspots. (Sara Santos- CIBIO-UE)
- 17.00 - Conservation of species and natural habitats and the implementation of linear infrastructures". (Júlia Almeida – ICNF)
- 17.15 – Power-lines and birds - (Carlos Rochinha – EDP – Distribuição)
- 17.30 - Power-line electrocution risk map of endangered raptors - The study case of the black vulture (Aegypius monachus) and the imperial eagle (Aquila adalberti). (Samuel Infante – Quercus)
- 17.45 - Management by common people. (Henrique Pereira dos Santos – Montis)
- 18.00 - Closing Session